Itinerary

Day 1: Perth, Pinnacles National Park & Geraldton

Your adventure starts with a welcome meeting in Perth at 8:30am with your tour guide, before we set out for the trendy seaside resort of Geraldton. But this isn't just any journey. We'll stop off along the way to take in the largest dunes in WA and the mysterious alien-like limestone towers of the Pinnacles at Nambung National Park, as well as checking out the Leaning Trees of Greenough and the lovely Jurien Bay, where you might spot a sea lion or two. In Geraldton we have an orientation drive around town before dinner, drinks, and a chance to get to know everyone.

Included Activities:

- Visit to the largest dunes in WA.
- Walk through the mysterious alien-like limestone towers of the Pinnacles at Nambung National Park.
- Geraldton orientation tour & the stunning HMAS memorial lookout.

Meals: None.

Driving Distance: 440km.

Walking Distance: Short easy walks / look out points.

Accommodation: Geraldton Motor Inn or similar.

Day 2: Northampton First Nations Gallery & Kalbarri National Park

After a leisurely breakfast, we head to historical Northampton, one of the oldest towns in Western Australia. We'll catch some heritage buildings dating back to the 1800s, and meet the artists at a First Nations gallery. Next up: the Pink Lake at Hutt Lagoon, which truly lives up to its name, before gazing in awe at the wind-eroded sandstone of Nature's Window, the spectacular Z-Bend Gorge, and the Kalbarri Skywalk at Kalbarri National Park.

Included Activities:

- Northampton - First nations community art gallery visit.
- Pink Lake at Hutt Lagoon.
- Kalbarri National Park - Z Bend, Natures Window & Kalbarri Skywalk.

Meals: Breakfast.

Driving Distance: 170 kms.

Walking Distance: 5 km / 2 short guided walks. Anyone unable to walk that distance has the option to wait for the group to return.

Accommodation – Kalbarri Edge Resort or similar.

Day 3: Kalbarri to Shark Bay & Monkey Mia

It's an ocean-themed day today. Jump on a boat at the Kalbarri Marina to learn about the local rock lobster industry – and even pull up some lobster pots yourself. Keep your catch to enjoy later that evening! Then it's one sealife legend to another, as we head off to scenic Monkey Mia, where the local Dolphin population thrives. Stop via the Hamelin Pool Marine Nature Reserve for some 'living fossils', and one of Shark Bay's picturesque lookouts. Put your feet up at Monkey Mia or hit the water, before an evening of First Nations experience courtesy of the Nhandu and Malgana people. This is your chance to try the didgeridoo or traditional conch shell, and taste some bush tucker.

Included Activities:

- Kalbarri - Rock Lobster Pot Pull Boat Trip - keep your catch to enjoy later.
- Hamelin Pool Marine Nature Reserve for 'living fossils'.
- Visit the beautiful Shell Beach which is formed from billions of cockle shells.
- First Nations experience courtesy of the Nhandu and Malgana people - try the didgeridoo or traditional conch shell, and taste some bush tucker.

Meals: Breakfast.

Driving Distance: 400 kms.

Walking Distance: Short easy walks / look out points.

Accommodation – Monkey Mia Dolphin Resort or similar.

Day 4: Monkey Mia Marine Reserve

Here's a post-breakfast activity you don't get every day: Bottlenose dolphin-spotting with WA Parks & Wildlife experts. Learn a bit about these magnificent animals, and then take some well-earned time off to relax on the beach, snap photos to make the folks back home jealous, or sit at the bar and watch the wildlife go by. If you fancy it, there's a sunset cruise, and you're invited, feel free to bring a sundowner with you. If you're lucky you might spot the elusive sea cows, or 'Dugongs'.

Included Activities:

- Bottlenose dolphin-spotting with the Parks & Wildlife experts.
- Free afternoon to walk the beaches, hire kayaks or relax by the pool in paradise.
- Optional Activity – Sunset cruise and the chance to spot the elusive sea cows, or 'Dugongs'.

Meals: Breakfast.

Driving Distance: None.

Walking Distance: Short easy walks / look out points.

Accommodation – Monkey Mia Dolphin Resort or similar.

Day 5: Carnarvon & Gascoyne Region

It's definitely a more spaced out day as we head to Carnarvon Space and Technology Centre for a quick photo stop. It was created to support NASA's Gemini, Apollo and Skylab programs. Next up, we visit the Gascoyne Aboriginal Heritage and Cultural Centre to learn about the region's unique culture and country from its First Nations custodians. Snap pictures of the Carnarvon Cactus Farm, one of the town's quirkiest sights, before heading to the Gascoyne Food Trail. The trail features everything from bananas, avocados, to beans, beef, ice cream, and mangoes. Relax tonight – take the chance for a stroll along the beautiful foreshore and head to a local restaurant.

Included Activities:

- Quick photo stop overlooking the Carnarvon Space and Technology Centre created to support NASA's Gemini, Apollo and Skylab.
- Visit the Gascoyne Aboriginal Heritage and Cultural Centre.
- Gascoyne Food Trail drive. The trail features everything from bananas, avocados, to beans, beef, ice cream, and mangoes.

Meals: Breakfast.

Driving Distance: 350 kms.

Walking Distance: Short easy walks / look out points.

Accommodation – Hospitality Inns Carnarvon or similar.

Day 6: Coral Bay to Ningaloo Reef Exmouth

Today we are off Coral Bay, home to the World Heritage-listed Ningaloo Reef, the world's largest fringing reef. We'll embark on a glass-bottom boat tour and snorkel experience to see up to 250 species of coral and 500 species of fish. Further along the coast we visit Vlamingh Head Lighthouse, with stunning views, then rest up in Exmouth town.

Included Activities:

- Visit Ningaloo reef on a glass-bottom boat tour and snorkel experience.
- Visit Vlamingh Head Lighthouse with breathtaking views.

Meals: Breakfast.

Driving Distance: 490 kms.

Walking Distance: Short easy walks / look out points.

Accommodation – Ningaloo Lodge Exmouth or similar.

Day 7: Exmouth with optional activities

It's your day. Experience a swim with the world famous whale sharks, go whale-spotting, swim with manta rays, or get your hiking boots on – the choice is yours. You can select your optional adventure when you book your tour, or your guide can help you get set up. Please note: Public transport is non-existent in Exmouth, so pre planning your activities is a must!

Optional Activities

- Choose from many local activities on land or out on Ningaloo Reef - Swim with whale sharks - book with us so you don't miss out, a day tour to Cape Range National Park.

Meals: Breakfast.

Q: Are national park and wildlife park entry fees included?

A: Yes, all listed national park, wildlife park, and guided cultural experiences on the itinerary are included in the tour price.

Meeting, finishing and emergency contacts

Q: Where and when does the tour start?

A: The tour starts on Day 1 at Quality Hotel Ambassador Hotel, 196 Adelaide Terrace, Perth. Your welcome meeting is at 8:30 am in the hotel foyer, we set off on our adventures straight after the meeting, so it is essential you arrive on time.

Q: Where and when does the tour finish?

A: The tour finishes on Day 8 in Exmouth at Ningaloo Lodge after breakfast. You can store your luggage if you are departing later in the day/evening. If you require post accommodation we can assist with post-tour accommodation at Ningaloo Lodge, let us know at time of booking or before final payment.

Q: Who do I contact in an emergency?

A: During the trip, contact your group leader first for any issues; for genuine emergencies, call the local office on (+61) 02 7229 1083 and leave a message if there is no immediate answer so the team can return your call as soon as possible.

Accommodation and rooming

Q: What standard and style of accommodation is used?

A: You stay mostly in locally owned hotels, motels and resorts, all with private ensuite bathrooms. The properties listed in the itinerary are a guide and may occasionally be substituted with similar standard accommodation if required.

Q: What room configurations can I book?

A: You can book:

- Shared Twin: Adult 18+ twin share with ensuite, solo travellers paired with the same gender.
- Private Double/Twin: For 2 people (Adults and/or Children) in a double or twin room with private ensuite; must be booked for two.
- Private Single: Adult 18+ in their own en-suited room

Q: Is this tour suitable for solo travellers?

A: Yes, many guests travel solo; you can choose a shared twin (paired with a same-gender traveller) or a private single room, and the small-group format makes it easy to meet people.

Q: Is there a single supplement?

A: Yes, travellers who prefer not to share can book the private single room option at the applicable single rate.

Q: Can children join this tour?

A: Children aged 12–17 may travel when accompanied by a parent or legal guardian and must stay in a private room; the tour is not suitable for children 11 and under.

Q: What facilities do rooms have?

A: Rooms include ensuite bathroom, towels and linen, TV and air-conditioning; private rooms also generally include a fridge, lounge area and tea/coffee facilities.

Q: Is there a chance to do laundry along the way?

A: Your group leader will advise you along the trip where you will be able to do your laundry. Options may include onsite or in room laundry facilities, and might be free or charged.

Transport and domestic flights

Q: What transport is used on this tour?

A: Transport includes an air-conditioned mini-coach or small bus with luggage trailer for land sectors.

Q: Are domestic flights included, and what is the baggage allowance?

A: There is no domestic flight included in this trip.

Q: Is airport or hotel pickup included on Day 1?

A: No, guests make their own way to the meeting point at Quality Hotel Ambassador Hotel in Perth for the welcome meeting at 8.30am. As we depart Perth straight after this meeting, it is essential you are on time. We can assist with pre-accommodation at our start point hotel, let us know at time of booking or before final payment if you require pre-accommodation.

Post-tour transfers are also at your own arrangement, although the guide is happy to assist with bookings. In Exmouth we recommend booking your airport transfer with Exmouth Bus Charters.

Passports, visas and entry requirements

Q: What passport validity and visa requirements apply?

A: International travellers should ensure their passport is valid for at least 6 months beyond their travel dates and that the name matches the booking exactly; you are responsible for checking and obtaining the correct Australian visa and any transit visas based on your nationality by consulting your government's travel advisories.

Q: Should I carry copies of my documents?

A: Yes, carry printed or digital copies of your passport photo page, visas, insurance and flight details, and leave a copy at home, as these are useful if originals are lost or stolen.

Fitness, mobility and age

Q: How fit do I need to be?

A: The tour is graded easy-paced but includes regular short walks to lookouts, beaches, waterfalls and through rainforest, so travellers must be mobile enough to walk unaided on uneven ground and manage steps.

Q: Are there age or medical restrictions?

A: The tour is not suitable for infants or children 11 and under; travellers aged 12–17 must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian, and participants over 75 must provide a doctor's certificate at least 30 days prior, confirming they are fit for an easy active holiday.

Q: Is the tour suitable for mobility-impaired travellers?

A: Unfortunately no; due to vehicle design, terrain and walking distances, this tour is not appropriate for those using wheelchairs, mobility scooters or walking frames.

Q: What medical precautions should I take?

A: Consult your doctor before travel for personalised advice and any recommended vaccinations; carry a basic first-aid kit and any prescription medications in original packaging, and check your government's guidance for rules on bringing medicines into Australia.

Travel insurance and safety

Q: Is travel insurance mandatory?

A: Comprehensive travel insurance covering medical care and emergency evacuation is strongly recommended for all travellers and is mandatory for international guests; policies should ideally also cover trip cancellation, delays and lost belongings, and proof of cover and emergency contact numbers should be available before joining the group.

Q: What safety measures are in place on tour?

A: The tour follows local safety regulations, uses licensed operators for activities and national parks, and your group leader may alter the itinerary in response to weather, road closures or other safety concerns to protect the group.

Money, tipping and contingency funds

Q: What currency is used and how should I manage money?

A: Australia uses the Australian dollar (AUD); cards are widely accepted in cities and towns, but it is wise to carry some cash for small purchases, and note that some businesses may apply a small card surcharge, while ATMs are limited in more remote areas.

Q: Is tipping expected in Australia?

A: Tipping is optional; you may choose to tip for exceptional service (for example, 10–15% in higher-end restaurants or a modest gratuity for your leader), but it is entirely at your discretion and not compulsory.

Q: Tipping your tour guide?

A: Tipping your group leader or local representative is completely optional, but always appreciated if you feel they've provided outstanding service during your trip. There's no set amount — it's entirely up to you. As a general guideline, many travellers choose to give around AUD 7-10 per person per day if they wish to tip.

Q: Should I have a contingency fund?

A: It is sensible to keep an additional emergency fund (for example, around the equivalent of USD 500) for unforeseen expenses such as weather-related itinerary changes, extra accommodation, or transport disruptions not covered by your insurance.

Luggage limits and packing

Q: How much luggage can I bring?

A: Each traveller may bring one main bag up to 20 kg and one day pack up to 7 kg due to limited vehicle storage; larger or additional luggage is by request only.

Q: What should I pack for this tour?

A: Recommended items include a 1L refillable water bottle, wide-brimmed hat, sunglasses and sunscreen, swimwear and beach towel, comfortable closed-toe walking shoes, flip-flop, all-weather clothing layers, toiletries, personal medications, insect repellent, a small torch, camera and some cash or card for meals and optional activities.

Q: Are there any “must-bring” items?

A: Essential items include travel documents, insurance information, reusable water bottle (at least 1L), day pack, camera, adapters, small locks, basic first-aid kit, insect repellent, and optionally a money belt, earplugs and a small torch or headlamp.

Q: What is the weather like along the route?

A: Driving from Perth to Exmouth, the climate gradually shifts from mild and wet in the south to hot and dry in the north. Perth has warm summers (18–30°C) and cool winters (8–18°C). Geraldton is warmer and drier, while Kalbarri and Carnarvon are semi-arid with hot summers around 22–35°C. Exmouth is tropical dry, staying warm year-round at about 24–38°C in summer and 15–28°C in winter, with lots of sunshine and very little rain.

Beach, snorkelling and marine safety

Q: How can I stay safe at Australian beaches?

A: Always swim between the red and yellow flags at patrolled beaches, never swim alone or under the influence of alcohol, check safety signage, ask lifeguards for local advice, and if you get into trouble, stay calm, float and signal for help by waving your arm.

Q: What should I know about snorkelling on this tour?

A: Our snorkelling trip in Coral Bay is on a glass bottom boat with the stops to snorkel at two different sites. Snorkels, masks and fins are provided. Wetsuits are not provided on this tour.

Inclusions, exclusions and meals

Q: What exactly is included in the tour price?

A: Includes 7 nights' hotel/resort accommodation with ensuite, 6 breakfasts, all listed national park and attraction entry fees, First Nations experiences,, all ground transport and boat trip, plus the services of an experienced driver-guide.

Q: What is not included?

A: Exclusions are meals not specified in the itinerary, optional tours and activities (options and other local experiences), pre and post-tour accommodation and transfers, personal expenses, international flights and travel insurance.

Q: Can you cater for special diets?

A: Most common dietary requirements can usually be catered for included meals if advised at the time of booking (e.g. vegetarian, vegan, gluten-free), noting that options may be more limited in smaller or remote locations.

Itinerary flexibility and group dynamics

Q: Can the itinerary change once the tour has started?

A: Yes, the itinerary may be adjusted due to weather conditions, national park or road closures, cultural considerations or other unforeseen circumstances; any changes are made with guest safety and experience in mind, and alternative activities are arranged where possible.

Q: What is travelling on a group trip like?

A: Travelling in a small group (maximum 16) means sharing experiences with people from different backgrounds; flexibility, punctuality and consideration for others help keep the trip running smoothly and enjoyable for everyone.

Q: Who leads the tour?
